One Stage, Many Voices — A Lifetime of Impact

November, 2025

Dear friend,

This past year at RRCAA has been filled with creativity, connection, and inspiring moments. Our theater season welcomed enthusiastic audiences, and participation in our arts instruction programs continued to thrive.

One Stage, Many Voices—A Lifetime of Impact: This idea represents the difference RRCAA makes in our community. Each performance, class, and workshop brings together the unique voices of students, artists, volunteers, and audiences to create meaningful connections that resonate beyond the walls of the barn or our classrooms in Madison. By supporting RRCAA, your business becomes part of this chorus of voices, helping sustain programs that inspire, educate, and engage people of all ages.

You can lend your voice to our mission by becoming a Community Partner. Your investment ensures that RRCAA can continue to bring the arts to life through accessible, high-quality theater and education programs that create lasting impact throughout our community.

We hope you will consider adding your voice to our vibrant network of friends and supporters. Our Community Partners receive meaningful visibility through our website, social media, and signage at Rabbit Run Theater. We look forward to hearing from you soon!

Sincerely,

Eric Mortensen
