

2027 Theater Season

May 28 - June 12

By Jonathan Sayer, Henry Lewis and Henry Shields
Comedy

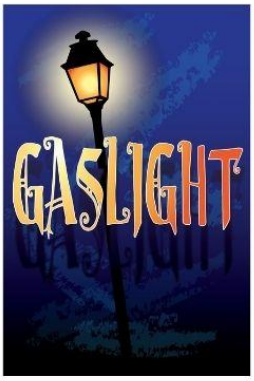

Winner of the Olivier Award for Best New Comedy, this theatrical sensation is the perfect blend of Monty Python mayhem and Sherlock Holmes mystery. Hailed as "A riotous explosion of comedy!" and "Nothing is as fall-down funny!"

June 18 - July 10

Musical

More than forty years ago, a theatrical phenomenon opened in London's West End, conquered Broadway, and captured the hearts of audiences around the globe. Seen by more than 150 million people in 57 countries and performed in 22 languages, it remains one of the most beloved and successful musicals in theater history.

July 23 - Aug. 7

By Stephen Dietz. Based on the original play by Patrick Hamilton. Thriller Mystery

Newlyweds Bella and Jack appear to have the perfect Victorian marriage-until unsettling events begin to unravel their seemingly idyllic life. Are mysterious noises and occurences really happening or is Bella imagining it? As her reality grows increasingly distorted, Bella is forced to question the intentions of Jack. This psychological thriller, adapted from the classic film, inspired the modern term "gaslighting" and remains one of the most suspenseful mysteries ever written.

Aug. 20 - Sept. 11

Book, music and lyrics bylrene Sankoff and David Hein. Musical

When the events of Sept. 11 unexpectedly ground thousands of airline passengers in the small town of Gander, Newfoundland, strangers become neighbors, kindness replaces fear, and lifelong friendships are forged. Filled with heart, humor and unforgettable music this award-winning Broadway hit reminds us that even in humanity's darkest moments, compassion shines brightest.
